

Mission Trip Team Covenant

This covenant is an agreement between you and God, the leadership of the missions, and your team.

1. I have trusted in Jesus Christ alone for salvation and have submitted to His Lordship in my life. (1 John 5:11-13; Philippians. 2:11)
2. As a member of this mission team, I will seek the glory of God and the good of others. (Philippians. 2:4-5)
3. I will consider those of the opposite sex as my brothers and sisters in Christ. I will clothe myself with the Lord Jesus and will not leave any room for the fleshly lusts. (1 Thessalonians. 4:1-7; Romans. 13:14)
4. I will obey the leadership placed over me and accept any consequences for disobedience, because God, Himself, has placed the leaders in their positions. (Romans 13:1-7)
5. I will seek to be culturally sensitive where necessary and not undermine the mission with inappropriate actions or appearances. (1 Corinthians 9:22)
6. I will be flexible in all circumstances, keeping a spirit of prayer about me. I will not grumble or complain. (Philippians 2:14)
7. I will seek to be a worthy ambassador of Christ and my home church. (2 Corinthians 5:19-20)
8. I understand that loving others is a powerful picture of what Christ is doing in His church. Therefore I will seek to love my teammates. (John 13:34-35)
9. I understand that my power source is not in man, but in God. I will meet with the Lord each day, apart from the group, to receive the strength that I need. (Mark 1:35; Psalm 5:1-3)
10. I understand that the mission field to which we are going is not my home town. Therefore I will make it my effort to assimilate what I learned there and live it here. (Colossians 2:6-8)
